CIDNY July 2020 Newsletter

Hello from CIDNY

Hello! Thanks for taking the time to read our July 2020 newsletter. We hope you're doing well and want to ensure you that we are here to help and as a resource for you.

Happy Birthday ADA! In July of 1990 the Americans with Disabilities Act or ADA was signed into law. We've come a long way in 30 years but we still have a lot of work to do. We will not stop working for a more accessible world for people with disabilities and to see that the promises of the ADA become real for everyone with a disability and we appreciate your support.

Due to COVID-19 (Coronavirus) our offices are closed until further notice. However, we are still here to support you! Our programs remain available remotely (online/phone). If you have a benefits counselor you can reach out to them directly or contact through email (info@cidny.org) or phone (Manhattan: 212-674-2300 Queens: 646-442-1520). We'll be sure to let you know when anything changes.

If you haven't already, please take a moment to Like/Follow CIDNY on social media.

VOTER SURVEY

You can help us spot problems that need to be resolved before the November Election.

If you voted in the primary election on Tuesday, June 23, please complete CIDNY's Voter Survey. Your help in identifying problems means that we can work to get them resolved. Every voter experience that we hear about – including the good ones – makes a difference in our efforts to improve our election process!

This is especially important as we look forward to the presidential election in November.

We know, for example, that some people did not get their ballot by mail and that some polling sites were changed at the last minute. So, if something like that happened to you, you can let us know through the survey. We're also interested in any difficulties with the online ballot.

Please take a minute to fill out our short four question survey: <https://forms.gle/Dynu3xDSeceNocVV8>.

If you cannot complete our survey online, or have concerns that were not covered by the survey, call Monica Bartley at 347-922-1358. Monica can help you complete the survey over the phone or take any complaints that are not covered in the survey.

SUMMER IS THE TIME TO BE COUNTED

Join CIDNY's 2020 Census count, it's fast and easy – and if you need help doing it, we're here to work with you.

If you are concerned about accessible, affordable housing, accessible streets and transportation, better education and employment opportunities, and maintaining the benefits and services available to you, take the 2020 Census. The 2020 Census will determine who gets represented for the next 10 years.

In fact, this is one of our opportunities to make sure our voices are heard and that we get the representation in Congress, in budget discussions and locally for the next decade.

Go to www.CIDNY.org/Census or contact CIDNY's Census Manager, Corinne Varela at cvarela@cidny.org. If you've already filled out your census form and sent it in, we'd like to know. You can let us know that at www.CIDNY.org/Census.

Don't forget to take a look at your peers' videos on why they think the Census is important. You can watch them on our website here: <https://www.cidny.org/2020-census-get-counted-nyc/>, with more coming soon!

Employment Stories

We're working with other organizations and supporters to help talk about employment for people with disabilities. Unemployment has disproportionately affected people with disabilities and it is far past time that this changed. We're looking for some people who are willing to share their stories with publicly. We may share these stories with the general public and even with members of the government who may help shape policy around employment issues.

Do you have an employment story that you would like to share? Good or bad, we want to hear it all. If the Coronavirus/COVID-19 has had an impact on your employment status, we want to hear that too.

Your responses will be used to help tell a larger story about the employment challenges people with disabilities face.

You can respond by emailing info@cidny.org (or replying to this email) with your story. Thank you.
