COVID-19: Testing and Tracing During the Holiday Season

Some of us may have visited family or friends over Thanksgiving, or the people we know and interact with may have traveled. It's time to once again be vigilant in making sure we follow the safety precautions. If you think you have been exposed to someone with COVID-19 or may have been, get tested. Below are the best prevention strategies to date. While we all know them, it's a good reminder.

- Frequently wash your hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. When soap and running water are unavailable, use an alcohol-based hand rub with at least 60% alcohol.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose, or mouth with unwashed hands.
- Cover coughs and sneezes with a tissue or your arm.
- Avoid close contact with people who are sick.
- Stay home if sick.
- Get a flu shot.
- Worship safely: Avoid large gatherings, especially indoors. Wear a face covering, don't share chalices or utensils and avoid close contact with others including hand shaking and hugging — wave instead. If you're singing, you must stay at least 12 feet apart from others.

If you would like to receive weekly updates on where the mobile testing sites will be or would like to talk to someone about testing and tracing, please email T2@cidny.org. Visit <https://www.cidny.org/testing-and-tracing/> for updates on testing. You can also tell your CIDNY counselor that you would like to talk to someone about COVID-19. If you don't have a CIDNY benefits counselor, call 212-674-2300 and tell our receptionist that you would like to talk to someone about COVID-19.

Medical Billing Focus Group

Have you received medical bills that seem unfair or confusing? Help make medical billing fairer for everyone in New York! Most of us who have had any contact with the health care system have at one point received medical bills that seem unfair and confusing, and may even drive people into debt. We need your help to learn more about your experiences to help advocate for new legislation to help make the medical billing process more transparent and better protect patients against medical debt.

Join our discussion and take part in our focus group on Thursday, December 10th from 6:30pm to 8pm and you may receive $50. Spaces are limited.

Sign up here for consideration: <https://www.cidny.org/2020-medical-billing-abuse-focus-group/>.

We will share our findings with lawmakers to advance consumer protections in New York State.
