CIDNY’s Youth Program

A resource for students with disabilities

The Youth Transitions Program at Center for Independence of the Disabled, NY - Queens
For students with disabilities ages 14 - 24
Transition information available for parents/guardians

The Next Step program offers:
❖ Transition planning and goal setting for education, vocational training and/or employment after high school or college.

❖ Advocacy services to make sure students get the help they need for a successful transition into their adult life.

❖ Screening and counseling to make sure students have a package of benefits and supports they are entitled too.

❖ Transition information and resources available for parents and guardians.

To find out more, contact:
Jenna Provenzano
Youth Transition Specialist
646-442-1520
jprovenzano@cidny.org