
CIDNY Executive Director Sharon McLennon Wier Appointed to New York State Trauma Informed Network and Resource Center Advisory Council!

The New York State Trauma Informed Network and Resource Center (TINRC) funded by the NYS Office of Mental Health has selected Sharon McLennon Wier, Ph.D., MEd., CRC, LMHC, executive director, Center for Independence of the Disabled, New York to serve as a member of the Advisory Council. The goal of the Advisory Council is to guide and direct NYS TINRC activities and priorities, including planning for quarterly and annual meetings. Dr. McLennon Wier will be joining a diverse representation of people across regions, sectors, races, ethnicities, genders, and experiences, who have a commitment to trauma-informed and equity-centered principles and practices individually and within their organization.

The TINRC envisions a New York State where all people and their communities can attain wellness and resiliency, and systems have the tools to support healing from toxic stress and trauma.

The Advisory Council prioritizes creating space for collaboration and sharing of stories and concepts that reflect the mission, vision, and values of the network. Together the Network will leverage collective experiences and expertise to provide insights, build relationships, and expand trauma responsive practices across New York state.

Learn more about the New York State Trauma Informed Network and Resource Center by visiting our website for resource offerings, directory, and event information:
<https://www.traumainformedny.org/>.