

Vocational Transition Services

Empowering Your Path. Elevating Your Future.

At CIDNY, our Vocational Transition Services are designed to support youth and adults with disabilities—including physical, sensory, medical, mental health, learning, and developmental disabilities—to prepare for, find, and excel in employment or education.

Our interactive, people centered workshops give participants the tools they need to take charge of their goals, build confidence, and step into their future with purpose.

What We Offer

- ✦ Empower and support youth and individuals with disabilities as they make transitions to higher education, employment, and adult life.
- ✦ Provide presentations, table community events school, virtually, and in person.
- ✦ Help individuals develop goals and action plans for successful outcomes.
- ✦ Support individual's efforts to identify and address barriers to their goals.
- ✦ Promote cultivation of community connections that will further higher education and address barriers to education and employment.
- ✦ Guide through understanding and advocating during IEP meetings.
- ✦ Advocacy education for consumers who are unfamiliar with reasonable accommodations.

Empowering Your Career Journey

2026, we continue our Informative weekly workshops built for and with people with disabilities, focusing on:

-  Employment readiness
-  Educational pathways
-  Skills training
-  Technology in the workplace
-  Networking & community connections
-  Career development
-  Job fairs • Internships • And more!
